DALHOUSIE PRESIDENT

Helen Findlay

It's been a pleasure to be Dalhousie President for 2011.

I managed to visit most clubs for at least one event. Gisborne is high priority for 2012.

Despite the wet conditions during winter, all events as per the 2011 Syllabus have been finalised. Well done to all winners and congratulations to all Clubs for the manner in which they conducted the Tournaments and Bowls.

The loss of the Seymour Golf Clubhouse to fire on 23rd Sept was devastating for them, but the very successful Tournament conducted in November was great. Sitting around afterwards under the trees was lovely.

Welcome Karen Sangster and Barb Doyle to the WGDD Committee. Thank you to Sandra Hanley, treasurer and Pat Gilchrist, committee member, for your years of service.

Thank you to all Committee members and office bearers for being well organised and conducting all events efficiently, making the job of President much easier and pleasant. Our Life Members, Gwenda, Marg and Judy are always supportive and helpful, thank you.

Best Wishes to all golfers for Christmas and the New Year.

CAPTAIN'S ANNUAL REPORT

Liz Gee

The year began at Trentham, with the Player of the Year, Mary Campbell was the winner. She deserves a hearty cheer!

The four-ball saw some startling scores, Sheena and Tina had 58, Helen and Lyn had fifty-four, but it simply didn't rate!!

In April then at Lancefield, for those on 30 plus, The day was run by Joyce and Marg, with hardly any fuss.

It seems that local knowledge helped to post a winning score, With Florence Meyer and Pam Drummond, coming to the fore.

The weather then got in the way, the Jean Wallder was washed out, And the foursomes planned for Seymour, could not be carried out.

So next we went to 'Bogie, the Championships to play, A play-off for the scratch, saw Glenda win the day.

Another play-off for Champ of Champs, was played by Gail and Kay With Gail eventually the victor, after a long and tiring day.

At Yea we played Jean Wallder Bowl, eighteen teams made up the field And after all the scores were in, the winners were Mansfield.

The foursomes moved to Broadford, 'cause the Seymour Club burnt down It meant the game could still be played, but in another town.

Dale Stuart and Jane Fletcher turned in the winning score, Amazingly after twice round the course, they'd shot one hundred and fifty-four.

Thanks to all who played this year, and the clubs that hosted days We now look forward to 2012, and lots more golfing days.

ALEXANDRA by Pauline Brooks.

On Monday November 28, 10 of the ladies who play in a nine hole competition on Monday mornings, travelled to Marysville G.C. for their Xmas breakup. An enjoyable nine holes of golf was followed by lunch at the Marysville Bakery.

A four week clinic to encourage new members was conducted by Nichola from Mansfield Golf Club. Four ladies took part and will hopefully continue on with their golf. (Photo attached)

The playoff for the Medal of Medallist Winner for 2011 was held on Wednesday December 7. Seven players competed for this honour. The course was rated on Monday December 5th and we will know the outcome in the new year.

Alison Bentley, Medal of Medallist winner 2011

EILDON by Lyn Capp

We come to the end of another, you could say, very successful year. We held our annual Bowl in October, with a great turn up of 45 players, the winning team being Alexandra One on a count back from Alexandra Two. Congratulations to the Alex ladies. We were blessed with the weather being a perfect golf day. Once everyone had gone home, the rain came down, what more could you ask? Our course is in excellent condition, due to the rain and some major working bees throughout the year. We are hoping for a busy summer with lots of tourists due to the Lake being full.

Our small group of ladies enjoyed a pleasant day recently, at Benalla Golf Club, playing nine holes, then an even more pleasant lunch at the Art Gallery Café, followed by wine and nibbles at Lake Nillacootie for afternoon tea. Don't worry, we were transported by bus, our driver being our President's husband. Thank you Ivor.

We finished our year with nine holes of novelty golf, followed by a club house lunch, and of course Kris Kringle. We wish everyone in Dalhousie a happy and safe Christmas and New Year.

PS: We are very proud of our club captain Helen for working hard to achieve the highest award in Dalhousie.

GISBORNE by Pat Gilchrist

Phew - November was a busy month at Gisborne! Our Open Tournament was won by Kate Merta of Woodlands G.C. She already has a handicap of 11 after only playing golf a short time! We then had our Weekend Championship which was won by Kathy Richards. Finally we held our Club Championship. Jo McPhee won her second successive Club Championship. Marlene Hodges won B Grade and Pat Gilchrist C Grade.

The Ladies Committee can now take a breather. We had a great day on Presentation Day. President Betty Glover organised a quiz and afterwards, each table had to sing and act out a Christmas carol. As there was no time to practise some of the items were hilarious. It was great that several of our older ladies were able to join us on Presentation Day. These included Joan Guthrie., Teresa Millett and Joy Greenwood who are well known to Dalhousie ladies.

Professional James Wright will hold pro ball comps. for the ladies on Wednesdays until proper comps. resume mid January.

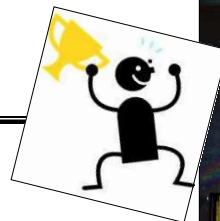

KILMORE by Helen Dennett

Kilmore Golf Course is in superb condition. The greens are close to their best following their recent coring.

The Medal of Medallists for 2011 was Jan Hourigan for the third time. Jan has been in excellent form over recent weeks having returned to golf this year following shoulder surgery. She blitzed the field at the Veterans' week at Corowa and Howlong winning the best 3 of 4 rounds plus several day events.

Dianne Dixon has similarly been in great form this year. She finished 12th in the final of the Golf Victoria Silver Spoon event held at Waverley on 28th October with a very good score of 33 points in atrocious conditions. Di also partnered Carolyn Morris and represented the District in the RWH

MERRY CHRISTMAS from Delegate Dale

Another busy year of tournaments, bowls and club golf. It really provides a great opportunity to meet, play and make friends with lots of ladies.

Golf Victoria: At our last meeting the new Board outlined their strategic plan for administering golf in Victoria. Their goals and objectives are comprehensive and well formalised. There have been many changes since amalgamation and the heavy workload will mean implementation of some procedures will be delayed. The Tournament Handbook and the Club Directory will be sent electronically.

Current numbers: Men 77% Women 23% Little change in ratios, though numbers decreasing overall. GV will focus on recruiting female players 25-40 years (the smallest percentage of women). New Website 2-3 weeks away. You will be able to enter events online.

Course Rating: No Slope until 2013. New Course Rating can be used as soon as club receives it.

Women's Open in February: It's good fun to volunteer and see some great golf. I think Dalhousie is well represented at these events.

I would like to wish you all an enjoyable Christmas break and look forward to a game with most of you next year.

Dale in a wining mood at the Woodend Tournament

More News from Here, There and Everywhere!

4BBB finishing with a respectable 40 points at Goonawarra. Our Captain Sandra Wicking has also been playing some very good golf. This has been recognized by her winning the Silver Country Division of the Mona Macleod Brooch with a score of -5. This is calculated on the best net score over 36 holes of stroke. Congratulations Sandra.

Kilmore held its Ladies AGM in October with no change from the previous Committee. The Club AGM was recently held with two of our ladies, Molly Bell and Deirdre Cleary being elected onto the General Committee. With the recent merging of the Club Finances of the Men and the Ladies, we should now have a loud voice (or a couple of loud voices) representing us ladies at the Club Level. Molly has taken on the Secretary role as well as being the Lady Club President. Deirdre has taken on the 'House' role as well as her Treasurer's role for the Ladies.

We are looking forward to some good golf in 2012 and wish all Dalhousie players a very pleasant Christmas and festive season.

MARYSVILLE — No report but a joke from Lesley

A group of golfers were playing in a very erratic way with balls landing in hazards, on adjoining fairways and with many miss hits and lost balls.

The players in the group behind which included an Irish Priest, an American Ophthalmologist and an Australian were very frustrated with the slow play of the group in front. On returning to the clubhouse these players complained to the Captain about the slow play.

The Captain explained that the slow play was probably due to the fact that the players were blind. On hearing this explanation the group felt guilty about their intolerant attitude. So the Irish Priest offered to pray for the golfers, the Ophthalmologist offered to treat their blindness and the Australian asked 'Why don't they bloody well play at night?'

All Marysville golfers wish all Dalhousie golfers a Happy Christmas and Healthy New Year.

ROMSEY by Beryl Cole

Time goes by quickly not giving the Romsey women time to provide another highlight to report on although Leila scored well at Waverley in the Silver Spoon final, and only had to play the last hole in the storm while her caddie left her to it and retreated to the shelter of the veranda.

Our 19th Annual Challenge Bowl was a successful day with a full field and the weather holding off til most players had finished. With our new signs and the map handed out, players were able to navigate the course with few problems. To continue the theme around Dalhousie we also had count backs, with three teams finishing on 90 points. Congratulations to Woodend who were the winners.

We have acquired piles of dirt which we are hoping will be turned into new tees for the women and other works around the course. Watch this space for more updates later.

Our weekend away at Numurkah went well with Lorraine winning a ball in their Saturday comp. After an early start and shopping for supplies we played 18 holes Friday, followed by 18 holes Saturday before a trip to Cobram for an ice-cream. (Pity we had to stand outside the shop and beg to be let in.) Thompsons Beach at Cobram was worth the visit to paddle and sit under the beautiful gums and ponder life. Sunday we played 18 holes foursomes before heading home. Needless to say we had to stop at Wunghnu for their vanilla slices and pies.

We are looking forward to a Christmas break after we play our North Pole rules and go out to dinner. Merry Christmas to all and hope to see you around the Dalhousie courses next year.

SEYMOUR by Glenda Woods

Many thanks to everyone who has supported the club in any way since our clubhouse burnt down in late September. We had over 100 at our fundraiser day and have received many generous donations. Very much appreciated. We are now operating out of the 'Caddyshack' which is fully functional with a bar, office space and some tables and chairs. The men and women did a great job painting and renovating to create a meeting place for us that is noisy but works well.

Our Tournament in November was 'El Fresco' as we all dined outside on a quite warm afternoon to allow Cathy Fasso and the caterers to own the 'Caddyshack'

More News from Here, There and Everywhere

Congratulations to Club Champion Jane Fletcher, who won by a margin of 25 shots—but she does play off a handicap of one! B Grade Champion is Liz Gee and Bev Tennant won C Grade to give her a complete set of Championship trophies—quite a feat! Now, when we eventually buy some new trophies, they may receive something to put on the mantelpiece!

Congratulations to Pam Jarvis on winning the Medal of Medallist final with a fine net 70. Finally, the ladies enjoyed a relaxed BBQ evening for our Christmas party with yummy salads and desserts at the home of Tania Zentveld in Avenel.

STRATHBOGIE by Eleanor Barnes

Strathbogie golf club is in great condition and we will be playing over the summer months. Sorry we didn't make a lot of tournaments this year but with so few ladies it is very hard. Well don't have a lot to report but hope everyone has a wonderful Christmas and Happy golfing next year.

TRENTHAM by Mary Bysouth

What's happening around Trentham? Well in November seven of our golfers travelled to Bright to stay at Karnu cottages for the annual ladies golfing trip, a little shopping with some wining and dining included. In perfect weather they played the Bright course on Tuesday. The plan was to then play Myrtleford on Wednesday before heading home. However, they awoke to steady rain on Wednesday which continued to set in. Over a coffee the decision was made to head towards home and find a course where it wasn't raining. This ended up being Benalla.

This week was the second round of our summer golf comp. We were all out enjoying playing golf in lovely weather when there was a loud commotion, which was heard all over the course. We all thought that could only mean one thing! Sure enough Amanda Bestwick had hit a hole in one on the 15th. "Up in the air and straight into the hole, beautiful shot", her companions reported. During the summer Wednesday comp the winner and runner up get a prize and worst score, we all know what that's called, gets a Mars bar. Amanda not only had a hole in one, she also won the Mars bar!

Merry Christmas to all from the Trentham golfers.

YEA by Jan Wealands

The annual Mary Walker Memorial event took place on Sunday, October 23. Many members of the Walker and Quinlan families joined local players on the day. This was a mixed Canadian Foursomes competition with Vicki and Greg Clements winning the Memorial trophy. Laurie Quinlan thanked everyone for the day and remarked on how the condition of the course had improved and how much the family look forward to coming up annually for this event in Mary's memory. As usual the ladies served up a delicious afternoon tea.

Twenty-one Yea lady golfers played nine holes at Seymour then headed to the Trawool Shed for a delicious lunch to celebrate the end of another fun, challenging year.

Here's a great photo of two fabulous club members and great mates who have constantly represented our club at so many Dalhousie events this year. Their support is so appreciated by all the ladies at Yea. Well done and thanks to Karen and Di.

A field of over 100 ladies and men competed in the first round of the Murrindindi Masters at Yea on December 3. Yea was complimented widely on the condition of the course. The Masters is sponsored by Foodworks and played over four courses in the Shire – Yea, Alexandra, Eildon and Marysville, over the next four months. All clubs were well represented with the Yea Ladies succeeding with Jan Wealands winning the day with 68 nett. Di Elliot was runner-up in B-grade with 70 nett.

Denise wins at home at Woodend

And now for a Laugh!!!!!!

Old Friends

Two elderly ladies had been friends for many decades. Over the years they had shared all kinds of activities and adventures. Lately, their activities had been limited to meeting a few times a week to play cards.

One day they were playing cards when one looked at the other and said, "Now don't get mad at me. I know we've been friends for a long time but I just can't think of your name. I've thought and thought, but I can't remember it. Please tell me what your name is."
Her friend glared at her. For at least three minutes she just stared and glared at her.

Finally she said, "How soon do you need to know?"

The Ventriloquist

A young ventriloquist is touring the clubs and one night he's doing a show in a small town in Sydney. With his dummy on his knee, he starts going through his usual dumb blonde jokes.

Suddenly, a blonde woman in the 4th row stands on her chair and starts shouting, "I've heard enough of your stupid ass blonde jokes! What makes you think you can stereotype women that way? What does the color of a person's hair have to do with her worth as a human being? It's guys like you who keep women like me from being respected at work and in the community, and from reaching our full potential as a person, because you and your kind continue to perpetuate discrimination against not only blondes, but women in general and all in the name of humor!"

The embarrassed ventriloquist begins to apologize, and the blonde yells, "You stay out of this, mister! I'm talking to that little bloke on your knee!"

Perks of reaching old age!!

1. Kidnappers are not very interested in you.
2. In a hostage situation you are likely to be released first.
3. No one expects you to run--anywhere.
4. People call at 9 pm and ask, "did I wake you?"
5. People no longer view you as a hypochondriac.
6. There is nothing left to learn the hard way.
7. Things you buy now won't wear out.
- 8 You can eat your evening meal at 4 pm.
9. You can live without sex but not your glasses.
10. You get into heated arguments about pension plans.
11. You no longer think of speed limits as a challenge.
12. You quit trying to hold your stomach in no matter who walks into the room.
13. You sing along with elevator music.
- 14 Your eyes won't get much worse.
15. Your investment in health insurance is finally beginning to pay off.
- 16.. Your joints are more accurate meteorologists than the national weather service.
17. Your secrets are safe with your friends because they can't remember them either.
18. Your supply of brain cells is finally down to manageable size.
19. You can't remember who sent you this list.
20. And you notice these are all in Big Print for your convenience.

Most importantly, never, ever, under any circumstances, take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same night.

The pastor asked if anyone in the congregation would like to express praise for answered prayers. Suzie Smith stood and walked to the podium.

She said, "I have a praise. Two months ago, my husband, Ted had a terrible bicycle wreck and his scrotum was completely crushed. The pain was excruciating and the doctors didn't know if they could help him." You could hear a muffled gasp from the men in the congregation as they imagine the pain that poor Ted must have experienced.

"Ted was unable to hold me or the children," she went on, "and every move caused him terrible pain." We prayed as the doctors performed a delicate operation, and it turned out they were able to piece together the crushed remnants of Ted's scrotum, and wrap wire around it to hold it in place.

"Again, the men in the congregation cringed and squirmed uncomfortably as they imagined the horrible surgery performed on Ted." Now, she announced in a quivering voice, "thank the Lord, Ted is out of the hospital and the doctors say that with time, his scrotum should recover completely."

All the men sighed with unified relief. The pastor rose and tentatively asked if anyone else had something to say.

A man stood up and walked slowly to the podium. He said, "I'm Ted Smith." The entire congregation held its breath.

"I just want to tell my wife the word is sternum."

A little old lady

A little old lady who had lost her marbles was walking up and down the halls in a nursing home. As she walked, she would flip up the hem of her nightgown and say "Supersex." She walked up to an elderly man in a wheelchair flipping her gown at him, she said, "Supersex." He sat silently for a moment or two and finally answered, "I'll take the soup."

Golf Joke

A man entered the bus with both of his front pockets full of golf balls, and sat down next to a beautiful (you guessed it) blonde. The puzzled blonde kept looking at him and his bulging pockets. Finally, after many such glances from her, he said "It's golf balls."

Nevertheless, the blonde continued to look at him for a very long time, deeply thinking about what he had said. After several minutes not being able to contain her curiosity any longer, she asked, "Does it hurt as much as tennis elbow?"

God Loves Drunk people too!

A man and his wife were awoken at 3:00 am by a loud pounding on the door. The man gets up and goes to the door where a drunken stranger, standing in the pouring rain, is asking for a push.

"Not a chance," says the husband, "it's 3:00 in the morning!" He slams the door and returns to bed.

"Who was that?" asked his wife. "Just some drunk guy asking for a push," he answers..

Did you help him?" she asks. "No, I did not, it is 3:00 in the morning and it is pouring rain out there!"

"Well, you have a short memory," says his wife. "Can't you remember about three months ago when we broke down, and those two guys helped us? I think you should help him, and you should be ashamed of yourself!"

The man does as he is told, gets dressed, and goes out into the pounding rain.

He calls out into the dark, "Hello, are you still there?" "Yes," comes back the answer.

"Do you still need a push?" calls out the husband. "Yes, please!" comes the reply from the dark.

"Where are you?" asks the husband.

"Over here on the swing," replies the drunk
